Changes to the Scheme

- The 'first and last mile' special RAV access arrangements have been finalised.
- HMMS will continue, however will revert to its original intent as a mass management scheme.

Access Update

- 1053 roads were endorsed under HMMS Road Lists for the 2018-19 harvest period.
- Onsite assessments are underway with the intent to add these endorsed roads to the relevant RAV Networks prior to the upcoming harvest period.
- This eliminates the need for future special access arrangements under HMMS.

Key Points

- No changes to the HMMS mass provisions.
- Apply for new RAV access early, allowing up to 12 weeks.
- HMMS access is now via RAV Networks or Restricted Local Access Permits.

Harvest Mass Management Scheme

What you need to know for 2019-2020 Harvest Period

Register for HMMS

- If you wish to participate in HMMS, continue to register your vehicles with a participating Grain Receiver.
- Familiarise yourself with the HMMS Business Rules available on the Harvest Mass Management Scheme page of our website.
- DO NOT submit a HMMS Road List to Main Roads.

New RAV Access

- If there are additional roads you need, for an upcoming harvest period, which are not approved for RAV access and you did not apply for them under HMMS last season, you will need to apply to Main Roads to have the roads assessed via the standard RAV application process.

RAV Access Options

- Use a Category 1 RAV vehicle combination that is 20 m or less in length and 50 t or less in gross mass on any road.
- Use a RAV that is greater than a Category 1 RAV vehicle combination on approved RAV Network roads.

For more information about HMMS contact our Heavy Vehicle Help Desk on 138 888 or visit the Harvest Mass Management Scheme page on our website at www.mainroads.wa.gov.au

TO make cake, get everything in readiness before beginning. Mix the ingredients in a granite-ware, enamelled, or earthen basin. Sift the flour before using. If baking powder is used, sift together with the flour two or three times. Use white sugar unless brown is called for.

Beat the whites and yolks of the eggs separately; the yolks until they cease to foam, and the whites to a stiff froth. Eggs will beat to a stiffer froth if cold, and beaten in a cold dish, and in a cool room. Use earthen or china bowls or plates to beat eggs in; a bowl if an egg-beater is employed, and a plate when a fork or egg-whip is used. The Dover egg-beater is doubtless the best.

First rub the butter and sugar to a cream, then add

F.K. 7.

[97]

the beaten yolks of the eggs, and beat and stir well; then the milk and flour, and lastly the beaten whites of the eggs.

Have the oven less hot for cake than for bread, but hotter for thin cake than for loaf cake. A cake is baked when a clean broom straw may be passed through the thickest part without any dough adhering to it. If it is necessary to move the cake about after putting it in the oven, it should be done carefully, as jarring it in any way is liable to make it fall and become heavy.

A tube cake pan, as shown in the accompanying cut, is very good for baking ordinary cakes, as the tube causes the cake to bake more evenly, and renders it less liable to fall.

Cake Pan.

To prevent cake from sticking to the pan, rub the pan with cold butter, and sprinkle with flour before turning in the batter.

If raisins or dried currants are used, they should first be carefully looked over, washed, and dried, and then dusted with flour. The raisins should also be seeded. A good way to wash these fruits is to put them into a colander, set the colander in a pan of warm water for a short time until they become plump, which will loosen the sand and grit, and then rinse by dipping the colander in and out of clean water several times. Then spread the fruit on a clean cloth to dry. The raisins may easily be seeded just after being washed in this way.

SPONGE CAKE.

Take three eggs, beat one minute; then add one and one-half cups of sugar, and beat five minutes; then one cup of flour, and beat one minute; add one teaspoonful of baking powder in one more cup of flour, and one-half cup of cold water, and beat one minute. Flavour to taste, and bake.

Local news from...

WICKEPIN POLICE STATION

Wickepin Police have recently had the pleasure to have participated in a number of small presentations involving the Wickepin Primary School.

Firstly we were lucky to witness a Constable Care show that delivered a great message through a show called "fun scary" that teaches students the difference between scary things that are fun (like rollercoasters) and those scary secrets that we need to tell a trusted adult about. An excellent presentation regarding protective behaviours which was well received by the students. Afterwards they viewed a challenging two-actor drama for the older children that explored the ability of young people to channel violent and destructive behaviours into creative pursuits.

Later that afternoon, we gave Constable Care a special escort to Yealering Primary School for another performance covering similar content.

Returning to Wickepin Primary on another day, Sergeant Huggins and I delivered two important sessions on cyber and internet safety to the years 3/4 and 5/6 classes. We certainly hope that the students took something away from the presentations and learned a little more about being cyber aware.

WPS teacher Ms Roper, allowed us to return to conduct a basic bike safety workshop where I put the kids through a short safety briefing before they were unleashed onto the quadrangle to put their new skills into practice. Well done to all the involved students as everyone remembered their helmets which was a very positive outcome. I also took the opportunity to challenge the children to a bit of foursquare, cricket and footy during the breaks which was pretty hard work given their enthusiasm!

Wickepin Police have attended a couple of crashes recently where seatbelts were at the centre of attention. In one of the cases, a motorist lost control on a slippery unsealed road and collided heavily into a large tree. The impact was such that the vehicle caught fire. Thankfully only very minor injuries were received by the driver and his injuries were kept to a minimum due to his seatbelt use.

A few weeks earlier, a truck versus ute incident just outside of town saw the unrestrained driver receive additional serious injuries due to not being restrained and containing his body during the impact. Thankfully the driver will recover from the injuries sustained in the crash however a split second decision not to wear a seatbelt resulted in unnecessary further injury.

It goes without saying, please always wear your seat belt, you just never know who or what is around the corner.

Finally, please remember that even if our phone is diverted to Albany, we will always be advised of the job either by a direct phone call to the OIC's phone or if less urgent via an email so please if you think it's worth letting us know, make that call.

You can contact us on 9888 1100. For all other matters that require Police attendance please note the numbers below.

ADULT FICTION

Night Boat to Tangier - Kevin Barry ~ In the dark waiting room of the ferry terminal in the sketchy Spanish port of Algeciras, two aging Irishmen — Maurice Hearne and Charlie Redmond, long-time partners in the lucrative and dangerous enterprise of smuggling drugs — sit at night, none too patiently. It is October 23, 2018, and they are expecting Maurice's estranged daughter, Dilly, to either arrive on a boat coming from Tangier or depart on one heading there. This nocturnal vigil will initiate an extraordinary journey back in time to excavate their shared history of violence, romance, mutual betrayals and serial exiles, rendered with the dark humour and the hardboiled Hibernian lyricism that have made Kevin Barry one of the most striking and admired fiction writers at work today.

ADULT NON-FICTION

Australian Toys - Luke Jones ~ Australian Toys is an illustrated history of Australian manufactured toys from 1900-1965. The book documents the production of each toy with beautiful colour photographs accompanied by relevant text about the toy and manufacturer. It provides an ideal platform to illustrate a history of twentieth century Australian manufactured toys, a history which has yet to be substantially documented in any form.

ADULT FICTION LARGE PRINT

Lost and Wanted - Nell Freudenberger ~ Helen Clapp is a physics professor. She doesn't believe in pseudo-science, or time travel and especially not in ghosts. So when she gets a missed call from Charlie, her closest friend from university with whom she hasn't spoken in over a year, Helen thinks there must be some mistake. Because Charlie died two days ago. Then when her young son, Jack, claims to have seen Charlie in their house just the other day, Helen begins to have doubts. Through the grief of the husband and daughter she left behind, Helen is drawn into the orbit of Charlie's world, slotting in the missing pieces of her friend's life. And, as she delves into the web of their shared past, Helen finds herself entangled in the forgotten threads of her own life.

ADULT DVD

Once Upon a Time in London ~ For the first time ever, the violent reign of two of London's most notorious gangsters, Jack Spot' Comer and Billy Hill, is grippingly brought to life, charting the epic rise and legendary fall of a criminal empire that lasted for three decades and paved the way for the notorious Kray twins to exert their dominance over the city's gangland realm.

JUNIOR DVD

Boonie Bears Fantastica ~ A team of thieves are sent by a famous treasure hunter to steal Fantastica's most prized and powerful item: the legendary Golden Antlers. Upon learning of this plan which could destroy the cartoon world, Coco, a fearless robot, Naya, the magical forest girl, Vick the logger and the Boonie Bears, Briar and Brumble, join together on a journey to save the kingdom. From Pine Tree Mountain to the mysterious Deer Clan Forest, along the way this ragtag group encounter many strange and wonderful creatures.

Caramelised chicken and rice noodle stir-fry

Ingredients

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1 bunch choy sum                                | 1 tablespoon light soy sauce  |
| 70g rice vermicelli noodles                     | 1 tablespoon Chinese cooking wine                                   |
| 1 tablespoon peanut oil                         | 1/4 cup chopped fresh coriander leaves, plus extra leaves, to serve |
| 600g chicken thigh fillets, cut into 3cm pieces | 2 green shallots, trimmed, thinly sliced                            |
| 3 teaspoons finely grated fresh ginger          |   |
| 3 garlic cloves, crushed                        |   |
| 1/4 cup tomato paste                            |   |
| 1/4 cup, brown sugar                            |   |

Method

Remove the stems from the choy sum and coarsely chop. Set aside. Cut the leaves into thirds. Place the leaves and the noodles in a heatproof bowl. Pour over enough boiling water to cover. Set aside for 7 minutes to soak. Drain and set aside.

Meanwhile, heat the oil in a wok over high heat. Add half the chicken. Cook, turning halfway, for 5 minutes or until golden. Use tongs to transfer to a plate. Repeat with remaining chicken.

Add the choy sum stems, ginger and garlic to the wok. Stir-fry for 1 minute or until aromatic. Add the tomato paste and cook, stirring often, for 1 minute. Add 80ml (1/3 cup) water and stir to combine.

Add the brown sugar and simmer for 5 minutes or until thickened slightly.

Return the chicken to the wok along with the soy sauce and wine. Simmer, stirring often, for 20 minutes or until the sauce is thick and syrupy. Add the drained noodles and leaves. Use tongs to toss until well combined. Toss through the chopped coriander and half the shallot. Place on a serving platter and sprinkle with remaining shallot and extra coriander leaves to serve.

Blueberry Buckle

Blueberry Buckle is a deliciously tender lemon kissed cake studded with fresh blueberries and topped with a sweet buttery streusel topping. This old fashioned recipe is a favourite to serve with coffee, tea or for dessert.

Ingredients

- |                        |                              |
|------------------------|------------------------------|
| 3/4 cup white sugar    | 2 teaspoons baking powder    |
| 1/4 cup butter         | 1/2 teaspoon salt            |
| 1 egg                  | 1/2 cup milk                 |
| 2 teaspoons lemon zest | 1 tablespoon flour           |
| 1 1/2 cups flour       | 1 1/2 cups fresh blueberries |

Topping

- |  |                              |
|--|------------------------------|
| 1/4 cup + 1 tablespoon butter softened | 1/3 cup all-purpose flour    |
| 1/4 cup brown sugar                    | 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon |
| 1/4 cup white sugar                    |                              |

Instructions

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Grease an 8x8 pan.

In a large bowl, cream sugar, butter, egg & lemon zest until fluffy.

In a separate bowl combine flour, baking powder, and salt. Add to sugar mixture, alternating with milk mixing just until combined.

Toss blueberries with 1 tablespoon flour. Fold into batter and spread in prepared pan.

Combine all topping ingredients in a small bowl until crumbly. Sprinkle over batter and bake 40-45 minutes or until a toothpick comes out clean.

... she had to be able to:

- set a broken leg in a crisis.
- patch the shingles on the school roof.
- cook lunch on an open fire.
- wallpaper the residence with newspaper to keep out the winter wind and snakes.
- stay fresh all day from a weekly swim in the dam.
- teach a class of children aged five to fifteen.
- ride a horse four miles to school.
- fight off swaggies who attempted to camp in the school house.
- keep the school property free of goats and cattle.

CULINARY ADVICE FOR THE NEW BRIDE

“ Man must be cooked for:

He'll do without shirt buttons, and he'll do without his slippers, but he will not do without his dinner, nor is he inclined to accept excuses as regards under or overdone meals after the first week or so of the honeymoon. If there be any young girls reading these pages who are contemplating marriage in the near future, take an old wife's advice and learn to cook, for only by feeding him well will you succeed in gaining your husband's respect and keeping his affection. The husband is a creature of appetite, believe me, and not to be approached upon any important matter, such as a new bonnet or a silk dress, on an empty stomach.”
