NEXT EDITION OF THE WATERSHED NEWS

MONDAY 9th August 2021

Community News

Birthday wishes to: Kiara Richards, Anika Mullan, Ross McDougall, Corey Dougall, Ricky Dougall, Cheryl Groom, Chris Ewen, Charlotte Ballard.

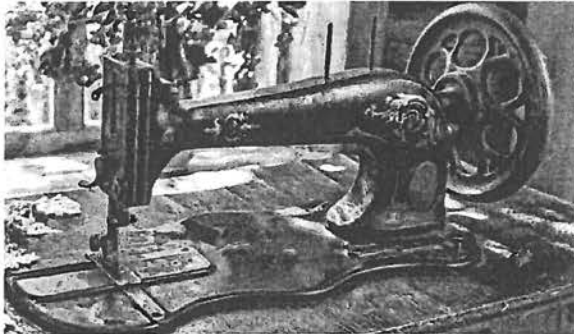

Peter Lewis of Esperance recently passed away. Peter was the brother of Colin Lewis.

He was married to Fay Orchard, formally of Wickepin.

He farmed at Gibson for many years.

Last Tuesday (20th July) HACC Centre Based Day Care travelled by bus to Jesse Martin's farm museum out of Williams. Because of a blackout at the farm, morning tea was transferred to the Williams Health Centre. Sincere thanks to Luci who supplied a beautiful feast of morning tea and all eleven of us had an ample fill of food. The rain didn't stop while the group was at the museum so walking between displays was quite damp to say the least. Jesse is now 91 years of age and had been collecting memorabilia for 50 years. Special thanks to Helen and Chris for helping on the day and their expert driving in difficult circumstances.

Everyone needs a Hug.

It's fat-free, sugar-free and requires no batteries. It also relieves pain and stress. So here's a hug from me to you.

St John Ambulance Wickepin Sub Centre

The Committee and Volunteers wish to thank our generous community for your pledged donations towards the purchase of the three Corpuls machines. With your assistance we have secured these vital machines which replace the obsolete Heart Starts.

It also provides us with the latest technology for the vital assistance we give to clients.

We plan, in the near future, to hold an open community demonstration of the Corpuls.

COUNCIL'S ROAD NETWORK – RAIN DAMAGE

All of council's roads are currently open but further rain events are forecast. Please restrict heavy vehicle movement and avoid any unnecessary travel on unsealed roads.

The gravel roads network is currently in the process of being inspected to record all damaged sections and will be programmed according to priority.

The sealed network will take priority over the gravel network.

Please drive carefully and ensure you drive to the conditions.

ROADSIDE SIGNAGE

A significant amount of signage and white posts around the shire road network have been struck by oversized vehicles.

One yellow sign costs $200 to purchase and install. Over 40 have been hit so far by machinery.

A white post (timber) costs $6 to purchase and install. Over 400 of these have been hit. A white post (plastic) is $80.

This happens every year with seasonal movement of machinery. The signs cannot be moved any further back as it is a legal requirement for signs to be 1.5m from edge of road pavement.

When moving oversized vehicles please take extra caution not to damage the road side signage / posts.

The blue tree has been removed from its current location in the main street. The new location of the blue tree will be discussed by the Townscape & Cultural Planning Committee at its next meeting.

2021/22 RATES

- 1 tsp smoked paprika
- 1 tbsp plain flour
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- 1 large onion, sliced
- 400g Swiss brown mushrooms, halved
- 3 cloves garlic, crushed

3. Heat remaining oil. Add mushrooms. Cook, stirring, for 3 to 4 minutes or until golden and browned. Transfer onions, pork and mushrooms to slow cooker (or if browning in the slow cooker, return the onions and pork). Add garlic, paste, tomatoes and stock. Cover and cook on high for 4 hours.
4. Reduce heat to low. Stir in Worcestershire sauce and cook for a further 1 1/2 hours. Stir through sour cream. Season well and scatter over fresh parsley. Serve with pasta or rice.

Wickepin Public Library News

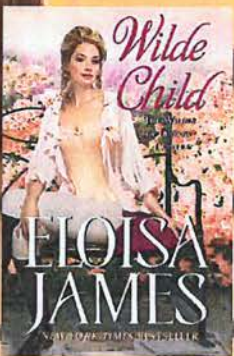

Adult Fiction Beth O'Leary - The Road Trip

Addie and her sister are about to embark on an epic road trip to a friend's wedding in rural Scotland. The playlist is all planned and the snacks are packed. But, not long after setting off, a car slams into the back of theirs. The driver is none other than Addie's ex, Dylan, who she's avoided since their traumatic break-up two years earlier. Dylan and his best mate are heading to the wedding too, and they've totalled their car, so Addie has no choice but to offer them a ride. The car is soon jam-packed full of luggage and secrets, and with four hundred miles ahead of them, Dylan and Addie can't avoid confronting the very messy history of their relationship... Will they make it to the wedding on time? And, more importantly... is this really the end of the road for Addie and Dylan?

Adult Fiction Debra Oswald - The Family Doctor

Paula is a dedicated suburban GP, who is devastated by the murder of a friend and her children by their estranged husband and father. Stacey and the children had been staying with her after fleeing his control, and Paula is haunted by the thought that she couldn't protect them when they most needed it. How had she missed the warning signs? How had she failed to keep them safe? Not long after, a patient with suspicious injuries brings her anxious young son into Paula's surgery. The woman admits that her husband hurts her, but she's terrified to leave for fear of escalating the violence, and defeated by the consistent failures of the law to help her. Can Paula go against everything she believes to make sure one woman is saved, one child spared? She isn't motivated by revenge. She's desperately trying to prevent a tragedy . . .

Large Print Eloisa James - Wilde Child

Already notorious for the golden hair that proves her mother's infidelity, Lady Joan can't seem to avoid scandals, but her latest escapade may finally ruin her: she's determined to perform the title role of a prince—in breeches, naturally. She has the perfect model for an aristocratic male in mind: Thaddeus Erskine Shaw, Viscount Greywick, a man who scorned the very idea of marrying her. Not that Joan would want such a dubious honor, of course. For years, Thaddeus has avoided the one Wilde who shakes his composure, but he's horrified when he grasps the danger Joan's putting herself in. Staring into her defiant eyes, he makes the grim vow that he'll keep her safe. He strikes a bargain: after one performance, the lady must return to her father's castle and marry one of three gentlemen whom he deems acceptable. Not including him, of course.

DVD Music

When Zu (Kate Hudson), estranged from her family and lifelong self-saboteur, finds herself the sole guardian of Music (Maddie Ziegler), her teenage life-sister, after the death of their grandmother. Music is nonverbal and on the autism spectrum and her grandmother has lovingly created a schedule and daily routine to support her with the help of some neighbourhood friends.

Our library is stocked with a large range of fiction and non fiction books, DVDs audio books, children's books and activity packs so come in have a browse and if you don't find what you're looking for, ask one of our team if they can order it in for you.
